Re: United States v. Jonathan Smith, 20 Cr. 317 (LTS)

Dear Chief Judge Swain:

On behalf of Jonathan Smith, I respectfully request a brief extension of time for the submission of Mr. Smith's objections to the Presentence Investigation Report ("PSR").

On June 14, 2021, we received the initial draft of the PSR from the Probation Department, and pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32(f)(1), our objections to the PSR are due on June 28, 2021. In order to prepare those objections, we have scheduled two telephone conferences with Mr. Smith, who is currently incarcerated at the Essex County Jail. However, given that those telephone conferences are not scheduled to occur until Friday June 25 and Tuesday, June 29, 2021, we do not expect to be able to submit our objections prior to the current June 28 deadline. We therefore request four additional days – until July 2, 2021 – for the submission of our objections.

We thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert M. Radick
